FIRST ANNUAL
Preterm Nutrition and
Growth (PNG) Conference

CONFERENCE DESCRIPTION
This one-day conference will focus on the importance of exclusive human milk-based nutrition on necrotizing enterocolitis, microbiome, post-natal growth and neurodevelopmental outcome in preterm infants. Faculty will provide state-of-the-art lectures on preterm nutrition and growth. Topics include:
• Improving breast milk feeding in mothers who deliver preterm
• Cost effectiveness of human milk-based nutrition
• Metabolic bone disease in preterm infants
• Growth and nutritional indices in ELBW infants fed exclusive human milk-based feeds

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:
Alan Lucas, MD, FRCP, FRCPCH
Emeritus Professor of Pediatric Nutrition, Child Nutrition Research Centre, Institute of Child Health, University College London, London, England UK

SPEAKERS:
Kittie Frantz, RN, CPNP-PC
Coordinator of Lactation Education
Clinical Instructor, Pediatrics LAC+USC Medical Center

Dr. Rowena Cayabyab
LAC+USC Medical Center

Jessie Rosoff, RD
Children’s Hospital Los Angeles

Dr. Melinda Elliott
Chief Medical Officer, Prolacta Bioscience
Neonatologist
PNG Conference Co-chairs:
Dr. Rangasamy Ramanathan
Dr. Fiona Wertheimer

Join Us For A Welcome Reception & Dinner at Flemings LA-Live

Wednesday, March 18, 2020 at 7:30 p.m.
Fleming’s Prime Steakhouse & Wine Bar at LA- LIVE
800 W Olympic Blvd #A135, Los Angeles, CA 90015

Please join us for a welcome reception and dinner to kick off the 1st annual Preterm Nutrition and Growth (PNG) Conference.

Please RSVP with Gina Adams at gadams@goodsam.org